The above-captioned matter came before the Montana Human Rights Commission (Commission) on January 16, 2001. The matter was before the Commission for consideration of respondent's "objection to further proceedings, or, in the alternative, request for right to sue letter arising from the issuance of a final investigative report on September 15, 2000." Although oral argument was not requested, Frederick Sherwood, counsel for charging party, appeared and presented the Commission with a Motion for Continuance. Based on credible, corroborated representation of counsel that respondent also joined in the motion, Section 49-2-205, MCA, the Commission considers the motion and agrees to continue the matter docketed for the January 16, 2001 meeting of the Commission until the next Commission meeting.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that respondent's objection to further proceedings, fully referenced above, is continued until the next scheduled Commission meeting.
