Charging party has instead filed a written request to withdraw her charge of discrimination, because she cannot afford to pay for counsel. After notice of the Hearing Officer's intention to dismiss this complaint as withdrawn, the department's Human Rights Bureau has not timely filed and served a motion to intervene and redesignate the charge in this case as a commissioner complaint. Therefore, the Hearing Officer dismisses the complaint with prejudice, as withdrawn by the charging party.

DATED: December 24, 2008.
