On May 31, 2019, the Hearing Officer issued a Notice of Intent to Dismiss Complaint giving notice that, unless by the close of the business day on July 29, 2019, a party files and serves an objection to dismissal, with good cause shown, or HRB files and serves a motion to intervene and redesignate the charge in this case as a commissioner complaint, the Hearing Officer will dismiss the complaint.

No objections or motions to intervene were filed by the deadline set in the notice. Therefore, this complaint is dismissed with prejudice.

Any extant protective orders and/or orders sealing documents and evidence remain in full force and effect until such time as a tribunal with jurisdiction shall vacate or modify the orders.

DATED: July 30, 2019.
